

Future Is Now For Public School 188 Children

What shall I be when I grow up?

A veterinarian, a deep-sea diver and a filmmaker were among the guests, who offered students the low-down on employment opportunities during a career day at Public School 188.

The annual education forum drew guest speakers from a wide variety of professions, who spoke with youngsters about how to cement their ambitions into sound career choices, plus delivered presentations about their own lives in the workforce.

Among other guests were Coney Island veterinarian Staci Broomberg, professional diver and marine researcher Gene Ritter and Officer India Archie from Deep sea diver Gene Ritter presents a demonstration.

Photos by George Napolitano

Teacher Miranda Perezic reviews the questions of curious youngsters.

the 60th Precinct.

Public School 188 is located at 3314 Neptune Avenue.

Veterinarian Staci Broomberg shows students a book about exotic animals.

NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Office of Student Enrollment Planning and Operations

Summer Workshop Series for 8th Grade Students and Families

Making Choices:
Finding The Schools
That-Are Right For You

Having many choices is great, but with more choices

Veterinarian Staci Broomberg shows students a book about exotic animals.

Officer India Archie makes the acquaintance of Ms. Morris's Class 5-513.